CITATION

Information obtained by the Physical Therapy Board of California has revealed actions taken by you which violate sections of the law regulating the practice of physical therapy. A Citation is hereby issued to you in accordance with Section 125.9 of the Business and Professions Code for the violations described below.

FIRST CAUSE FOR CITATION

The information obtained confirmed that you practiced physical therapy without a valid California license during the period on or about June 30, 2001 through June 17, 2003 and was compensated for said services. On June 4, 2003, you faxed a letter to renew your license and to change your address. On June 4, 2003 an email message was sent to you from this office notifying you of your renewal fees and that your license had expired on June 30, 2001. On June 17, 2003 a renewal payment of your physical therapist license was received by the Board.

Based on these facts, you were in violation of:

1. Section 2630 of the B&P

It is unlawful for any person or persons to practice or offer to practice, physical therapy in this state for compensation received or expected, or to hold himself or herself out as a physical therapist, unless at the time of so doing the person holds a valid, unexpired, and unrevoked license issued under this chapter.
